Dear Parents / Carers,

This week, we are enjoying an 'Equality and Diversity' week across our school, as we continue to address our anti-bullying agenda and promote tolerance and understanding of our Braybrook Family's diverse backgrounds, cultures, languages and the right to each person's individual identity.

As such, during the course of the week, children will have the opportunity to explore and discuss a range of different issues, which heighten their understanding, acceptance and respect of and for each other. In addition, we hope that through this work, in line with the SMSC agenda for schools, we will help to further shape the children's attitudes and tolerance towards different religious, ethnic and socio-economic groups in the local, national and global communities and to address any bullying or potential for prejudice or discrimination.

Whilst our children in Yrs 1, 2 and 3 will enjoy a day of workshops tomorrow, linked into this week's whole school theme of 'Chinese New Year', our children in Yrs 4, 5 and 6 will be exploring a number of issues throughout the week, to prepare them for 'life in modern Britain'. This will include workshops on bullying, with our visiting artist Ali Eisa, a 'Red Card for Racism Poetry Slam', with Birmingham's Poet Laureate 'Spoz', and a workshop on 'gender identity' at the end of the week.

Should you wish to find out more about any of our events during the week or to raise any questions, please don't hesitate in speaking to any member of the leadership team – we are always about! If not, then why not check out our learning through the website, in 'Our Gallery'.

Yours faithfully,

Miss E Green

When I see you through my eyes,
I think that we are different.

When I see you through my heart,
I know we are the same.
